HabAid

Dear Friends and Supporters,

After 50 years of fundraising activity we have decided to give our charity an overhaul and new brand image. I am delighted to announce a new name change from 'Habad Children Aid Society' to HabAid. This exciting change reflects our ever widening support for causes dedicated to children in need across the world. Our fresh new look has reinvigorated our purpose and has focused our intention even more. I know that with your continued support our new branding will drive even more support to our worthy cause helping more children that desperately need help.

It never ceases to amaze me how British people turn their attention to the plight of the less fortunate when called upon to help. We will continue to be free from onerous restrictive covenants and will continue to provide generous and unfettered support to a whole variety of worthwhile causes. What unites all of our causes is that each charity we support is dedicated to help children from an under privileged background.

Please can I ask for your support for our 2013 event? You are invited to join us for an evening to remember. We will ensure you are treated like a king and that your every requirement is attended to. In return, we ask you to remember what HabAid is about and to show your support by helping our children so that they too are given the opportunity to become kings or queens themselves.

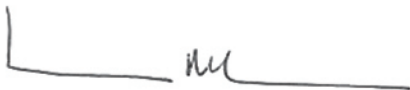

The profits from our forthcoming event will go directly to the projects we have carefully selected over the past 12 months. Each of our nominated charities put forward projects that require urgent funding and we ensure that every penny raised will be immediately despatched to that charity.

Your donations and financial support today will change the lives of children tomorrow. Remember, unlike adults, children do not ask for our help and it takes charities such as HabAid to give these children a voice. Put hope back into the lives of the children we support and give them the opportunity to embrace their childhood and have fulfilling lives.

You can help by joining us on the night, support us through our website, advertise in our brochure or simply make a donation.

With your help the lives of many less fortunate children can be changed forever.

We thank you again for your continued support.

Lane Bednash – Chairman of HabAid
